at Ford's this week .- New Orleans -The Water Committee bas received the report of experts appointed to make a thorough test of the Hyatt filter, and it is of such a nature as to remove all doubt in their minds of the feasibility of obtaining an ample sup ply of pure, clear water from Wolf river, above Raleigh. -The suit of J. P. Carey against the Etmwood Cemetery Company, was put on trial in the Circuit Court yesterday. His horse became frightened by a bell which sat upon the ground near the gate and ran away, throwing him out and badly injuring him. The court took a recess to allow the jury to go out and see the bell.

-Two or three women who have rooms over the building on the northwest corner of Second and Court streets engaged in a rough and tumble fight late yesterday evening with a meek lotherio – meek at least after the picnic was over. The police inter-fered before any blood was spilled, but not in time to prevent the amputation of the lit le man's finger by the teeth of the infuriated damsels.

—A slight ripple was created on the surface of the social sea yesterday by the announcement that Mr. E. H. orton and Miss Bessie Owens had been clandestinely married the evening before by Justice Quigley. The groom is about 22 vears of age, and a collector for J. M. Hill's shoe store. The bride is 17, very pretty, has been an operator at the Telephone Ex-change, and is the daughter of the foreman of the Louisville and Nashville carpenter shops.

There was a great uproar in the Library building, on Third street, Sanday night, caused by a husband discovering his wife in the act of emerging from the room of a festive Italian who inhabits that aristocratic tenement. The husband revenged himself on the spot by beating his wife until her screams brought assistance. After concealing herself all day Monday to escape further punishment, the wife re urned to her husband yesterday and all differences are reported to have been amicably adjusted.

-The City Council meets tomorrow to consider a proposition made by the Citizens' Water Company. It is un-derstood that the old and new com-panies make similar propositions. They propose to supply the city with water from the Mississippi, from Wolf river at its mouth or above Raleigh, or from any other source which the City Council may select. There is a general feeling on the part of members of the City Council that the city should build its own works on the plan to be proposed by the Water Committee.

His Home Run Hit Captured the Heart of an Heiress.

It was a close and exciting game. Bight nnings had been playe I, and the score stood a tie. Memphis had retired its opponent in the ninth inning without scoring. Memphis was at the bat. Two men were out. Two J. F. BUCKHAM & CO. strikes had been called upon the man at the Application for rates to clubs should be toward him. Then it took a sudden curve, made only to the office of the Company at He swung his bat. Would he miss it? The excitement was painful. There was a quick, short stroke. Ah! he has hit the ball. Away high in the air it sails. See, the center fielder is chasing it. The spectators hold their breath. Suddenly there is one tumultuons shout. The ball has gone far over the head of the fielder, who is chasing it. Around the bases speeds the batter. He touches the home plate and the victory is won. Bouquets are showered upon him. He looks up just in time to see a lovely girl take a bunch of roses and throw them at his feet. As he gracefully picks them up their eyes meet. A humble base ball player has
